

can I kiss you?

Do you ask for the kiss or just go for it and hope for the best?

Join the Gender Relations Center for a special presentation with Mike Domitrz. Domitrz is an award-winning author and speaker who uses the powerful tool of humor to address healthy dating, consent, bystander intervention, sexual assault awareness, and supporting sexual assault survivors. His interactive presentation, "Can I Kiss you?," is emotionally-honest, challenging, humorous and filled with skill-building activities. Moving beyond awareness-raising, this program teaches the audience exactly HOW to make a difference.

This is a ticketed event. Tickets are limited and can be picked up from the GRC, 200 LaFortune Student Center, from August 23rd to August 31st from 10am - 4pm, Monday through Friday. Any remaining tickets on September 1st will be available at Washington Hall just prior to the event start times.

Wednesday,
September 1st
Session 1: 7pm-8pm
Session 2: 8:45pm-
9:45pm
Washington Hall

GRC
Gender Relations Center

 @grcnd