

International Law as a Tool:

South Africa's Application to the International Court of Justice

Wednesday, April 24, 2024

12:30 p.m.

1140 Eck Hall of Law, Notre Dame Law School
Professor Roger Alford will give opening remarks.
Lunch will be provided.

Open to the public, all are welcome to attend.

Justice Leona Theron of the Constitutional Court of South Africa

The lecture will provide an analysis of the application for urgent provisional measures sought by South Africa before the International Court of Justice. Justice Theron will give context to and explain the historical significance of this ruling in light of South Africa's apartheid history.