

STRENGTH IN SOLIDARITY: SUPPORT FOR STUDENTS FROM PALESTINE, LEBANON, AND THE SWANA REGION

Third floor - Universality 312
University Counseling Center
St. Liam Hall

Monday, March 3
5:30pm-6:30pm

If the events in Palestine, Lebanon, Syria and throughout the SWANA region have been affecting you, please join our group discussion on how we can support each other on campus and our families back home. This session is private and confidential.

Snacks provided.

About the therapist: Sessions are facilitated by Dr. Juan Pantoja-Patiño and hosted by the University Counseling Center. Dr. Pantoja-Patiño is a first-generation Mexican-American, born and raised in Chicago. He completed his Ph.D. in Counseling Psychology at Loyola University Chicago and has over five years of experience providing therapy to college students. His approach is warm, collaborative, and emotionally focused, creating space for both the beautiful and painful emotions. He brings humor, honesty, and cultural awareness to his work, ensuring a supportive and affirming environment.
