The History Department cordially invites you to:

“Turning the Other Cheek? Auxiliary Bishop Johannes Neuhäusler's Lifelong Crusade to Free Nazi War Criminals”

Professor Ruff is currently working on an edited volume on the rise and fall of Christian Democracy after 1945 and researching how guilt accusations fueled the extreme right in Germany after 1919. He teaches courses on the Cold War, Nazi Germany, the two world wars, the history of liberalism, and religious history. He has received year-long research fellowships from the NEH, ACLS, and the Alexander von Humboldt Foundation. In 2022, he received the Nancy McNeir Ring Award, SLU's highest award for teaching. He just completed a rotation as chair of the Department of History and will become the new director of SLU's Center for Research on Global Catholicism in July 2027.

Professor Mark Ruff

Saint Louis University, Professor of History

Co-Sponsored by the Glynn Family Honors Program and the Global Catholic Research Institute

UNIVERSITY OF NOTRE DAME | HISTORY

Wednesday, October 7th | 5:00 p.m.
442 Decio Faculty Hall